most reasonable terms.

was just leaving Lyshon. Chances

In time to stop No. 8 at Lyshon. Bitters sickened at the thought of the train the name of the "nursery ex-goal, and the way they paced it off made it impossible for him to say he was disappointed when he jumped off

"No. 8, hold her at Lyshon. My em are on the grade, goin' to beat freight's bu'sted, an' thirty-three of ten minutes late, straight into the for he couldn't afford another second.

on the rear. The brakeman was there

Hennessy, half way through th door, wheeled. There, away back by the station platform, only a fading bit

"No, I believe I'll go back for the and Hennessy went in to reckon just how much over thirty minutes late form behind them, and the dispatches came shricking like a plow train at :

"Back up. Hennessy, for all you'r at Oldtown.

wild freight.

arms.

was no more skeptical than any of the No. 8 backed into Lyshon, for he cried. "I can't be"-

HERALD

BACOGRAHA

Advertisements will be insert d at one dollar per square of ten ines or less for the first insertion and 5) cents for each subsequent insertion.

Quarterly or yearly advertisements by contract.

Unless the number of insertions is marked upon the mann. script, advertisements will be published until forbidden and charged accordingly

VOL. 86.

WOODSTOCK VIRGINIA. FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1903.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

J. H. WILLIAMS W. T. WIILIAM WILLIAMS & BROTHER,

Attorneys-at-Law. WOODSTOCK, VA. Practice in all the Coorts of Shenandoah and adjoining counties, in the Supreme Court of Appeals, and in the Cirbuit and District Courts of the United Special attention given to the collection of claims. may 15, '84-tf.

M. L. WALTON. E. D. NEWMAN.

WALTON & WALTON,

Attorneys-at-Law,

WOODSTOCK, VA. Practice in all the Courts of Suenandooah and adjoining counties, in the Sapreme Court of Appeals, and in the Cirenit and District Courts of the United Special attentior to collection of caims

Oct. 20 '93. F. S. TAVENNER J. M. BAUSERMAN

TAVENNER & BAUSERMAN, Attorneys-at-Law,

WOODSTOCK, VA. July 21, '93-1y.

NO. H. DULIN,

Attorney - at - Law,

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA. will practice in the courts of Shenandoah and adjoining counties. Office in rear of the Court House, formerly occupied by Col. E. E. Stickley. Willbe at Woodstock every day of each week. but will be at Mt. Jackson on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons from 1:17 to 4:20. sept. 30, '98-lyr pd.

HOLMES CONRAD. P. W. MAGRUDER CONKAD & MAGRUDER,

Attorneys - at - Law.

WOODSTOCK, VA. Nov. 22 '90 tf

LEMUEL BORDEN,

Attorney-at-Law.

Began practice in 1878. Owner and Manager of The Shenandoah Valley Collection and Adjustment Agency, established 1889. Post-office Address- Calvary, Shenandoah Co., Virginia. may 15 '66-1yr.

W. L. NEWMAN,

Attorney-at-Law

NOTARY PUBLIC (with Seal.) Office Room 4 Building and Loan Jan. 2-tf. Building.

D. D. CARTER, M. D.,

Office and Residence South Main St. WOODSTOCK, VIRAINIA, Special attention given to Sur-PHONE CALL 38.

gerv. July 20-tf DR. J. B. RUSH,

Dentist,

Established in 1885. Office South Maia Street. Terms cash. may 2-1yr.

DR. W. S. CLINE,

Resident Physician.

Calls answered day or night. O ce and residence North Main March 4-tf. street.

DR. W. C. FORD

Has located in Woodstock and will romptly answer all calls.

OFFICE and residence Mahlenburg Street. may 8 '98"-1yr.

DR. T. F. LOCKE,

Resident Dentist,

OFFICE MAIN St., WOODSTOCK, VA. Chloroform, either and cocaine Dec. 36-1

DR. CHAS. J. SAGER,

having located at Tom's Brook offers nis professional services to the public in the various branches of his profession, e will be found at the Philip's house Mer April and and will give prompt attention to all calls. dar. 10, 39-tf.

-ESTABLISHED 1872.-J. F. SAUM & CO.

-WHOLESALE-Produce Commission Merchants

925 LOUISIANA AVENUE, WASHINGTON. . Solicit shipments of every marketable produce-no matter what-of the Farm. Dairy, Poultry and Stock Yard. Shippers paid daily the highest wholesale 25 years (over 20 in this city) of sucpessful experience is guorantee of our basiness ability to handle shipments atisfactorily.

Refer to proprietor of Herald and Citisens National Bank o Washington city

Gray Hair

"I have used Aver's Hair Vigor for over thirty years. It has kept my scalp free from dandruff and has prevented my hair from turn-ing gray."—Mrs. F. A. Soule, Billings, Mont.

There is this peculiar thing about Ayer's Hair Vigor - it is a hair food, not a dye. Your hair does not suddenly turn black. look dead and lifeless. But gradually the old color comes back, -all the rich, dark color it used to have. The hair stops falling, too. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

ou a bottle. Be sure and give the name J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass

The Fly's Noon Hour. An Illinois congressman said that during a hot summer day he sought shade of an old tree that stood at the corner of a down state hotel.

"I had no sooner stretched myself in asked. the hammock," said he, "than these flies attacked me, seemingly by the million. It was intolerable, and in no pleasant frame of mind I looked up the before we git dizzy headed." proprietor.

"'What do you mean,' I demanded, now, he answered, but you ought to stranger was not only a man-of-war, use the hammock during the hammock but he had changed his course to meet hours, and you'd have no trouble from the files.'

"'What are hammock hours?' I in-

"'From 12 noon to 2 p. m. daily,' he replied. 'During those hours flies will not attack you in the hammock. "I was much interested in the man's Socratic skill in evading the ssue, and, wishing to draw him out, I asked: "'Why are there no flies around the hammock between 12 and 2? "'Oh,' he rejoined, 'at that time cago Inter Ocean. An Awful Experience. A native diver descended into the crushing his hand between it and the and hove into the wind. masenry. When, on a signal being givunder water without hope of escape. ess decision was arrived at, and the newcomer proceeded with chisel and hammer to back off his unhappy companion's hand at the wrist. The prisoner was thus liberated, but died soon after reaching the surface from the shock. Never, I think, has an opium suffering.—"Travels In India."

THE VALLEY Building & Loan Association

WOODSTOCK, VA.

OFFICERS:

J. I. WISMAN, Pres. and Gen Manager. W. S. FRENCH, V. President.

W W. Logan, Secty. and Treas, DIRECTORS: J. L. WISMAN, GEO. R. GEARY,

W. W. LOGAN, L. S. WALKER, P. W. MAGRUDER. Address W W. LOGAN, Secy. & Treas.

Voodstock, Va

Engine of all kinds Threshers, Saw Mills,

I am agent for th above celebrated M. H. HOTTEL.

COURT ST., WOODSTOCK, VA. Warden Fravel, Propr.

Prompt attention given to all custo A share of the public patronage

WOODSTOCK

WOODSTOCK, VA. Monuments, Tombs and all Kinds of Cemetery Work

Lowest prices in the Valley. Give me E. U. SNYDER.

agu 90-1yr.

Mr. J. R. Miller informs his patrons and the public generally that Irwin. he has received his Spring samples, and is now prepared to furnish them neat fits of the most fashionable goods and make up Call to see him and his samples.

STICKLEY & BOYER BUILDING BAI 27-3D, WOODSTOCK, YA.

AN OXEYE SQUALL

By M. QVAD

Copyright, 1902, by T. C. McClure

brig Dolphin of Nantucket, Abner Bideford, with his wife Mary on board, was making a voyage from Boston to Cadiz. The year was 1784. There had been peace with England for a year, but in granting the colonies their independence the mother country had insisted on the right to search any American vessel in any water and at any time. The pretense was that English subjects were continually deserting his majesty's service and shipping on American craft. It was therefore Captain Bideford's plan to keep clear of any armed vessel flying the British worrying about what might happen wife saw that he was disturbed, and | see.'

"Abner, when we left home I do berest in a hammock beneath the scant lieve that I forgot to fasten the wood shed door.

"What's that to worry about?" he may be overhauled. Let's wait until we see a Britisher bearin' down on us But Captain Abner had just made his noon observation when a sail was by stretching your hammock in that sighted to the eastward. There was a fly haunted field of torture you call a feeling from the first that she was : British man-of-war. Half an hour "I know the flies are bad out there later all doubts were dispelled. The > that of the brig. "I told you so!" exclaimed Captain Abner to Mary as he pointed to the dis-

"Yes, Abner; you did," she replied. "And now he'll board and press two or three of the men, even though we haven't got a half a one to spare." "Waal, it's no use to give up till we have to. I should keep right on and pay no 'tention to him.' There had been a stiff breeze all the forenoon, and the few clouds driving they're all in the dining room." -- Chioverhead had a squally look to them Captain Eldeford's first idea had been to run away; but, realizing this would provoke curiosity and pursuit, he de cided to stand on. As the craft neared water to see whether one of the piers, each other the man-of-war kept all then in course of construction, had set. fast and seemed about to pass on with While he was engaged in this work a out notice. Of a sudden, however, he great iron cylinder subsided a little, fired a solid shot across the brig's bows

"That means heave to and be board en, another diver came down, he found ed!" shouted Captain Abner as he pre "But don't you do anything of the After a few moments of mute despair | kind!" protested Mary. "He's no more and harrowing uncertainty a speech- right to stop you than you have to stop

> "By Josh, then, but he'll blow us out of water!

man if you give up licked to a Brit isher who has bin beaten in war!" The Dolphin held her course. The eater in his dreams imagined a more British captain brought his big craft pitiful spectacle of hopeless human around in pursuit and opened fire with ils bow chasers. When his shot began falling about the brig, Captain Abner and the crew were for bringing her to, but Mary shut her teeth together and > grimly said: "Abner, if you let that Britisher board you before he shoots away a mast I'l not go back home to hear you called a

So the Dolphin held on, though be fore she got out of range the shot splashed water on her deck. She would have eventually made a clear escape but for loss of the breeze. When it died completely out, the two craft were three miles apart. The man-ofwar promptly lowered a boat with an officer and six armed men to pay a

"Waal, you see that boat comin', I s'pose," said Captain Abner as Mary stood beside him. "If you hadn't interfered, I might have got off without anybody bein' taken." "If I hadn't interfered, you'd have gone back to Nantucket to be sneered at by everybody in town. Jest you watch and wait. It looks bad, but sunthin' may turn up." The boat came on with long, regular strokes and in half an hour was along-hardly touched the deck when he sang | Magazine. "You impudent blackguard of a Yankee, but why didn't you heave to when we fired a gun?" "Because we didn't feel like it!" an-

"What! What! More impudence? My turkeycock, but you need a lesson in manners. As a beginning I order you to douse that rag!" "I shall do nothin' of the kind. If you want to make a prize of this brig. go ahead and haul down her flag. If

Do You Enjoy What You Eat? If you dan't your food does not do you much good. Kodol Dyspepsia theater, where he played the part of a Cure is the remedy that every one monkey. He was actively engaged or should take when there is any thing the stage for forty-nine years, and a wrong with the stomach. There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment There is ro way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept nealthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up. No appetite, loss of strength, pervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Sold by L. R.

R. R. TIES WANTED. I will pay highest cash price for both white oak and PEALED CHESTNU! OAK TIES. J D. GRABILL.

merchanteness and the pourself off." "Oh, you won't muster your crew eh?" sneered the lieutenant. "It is as we suspected-too many British deserters aboard! Well, I'll soon weed father had always been a strict disciplithem out without your help. Here you Yankees, muster at the mast!" Had the crew been backed by the captain they would have refused to line up on the deck; but, receiving no in line. They were six able seamen, owned and commanded by Captain the mate and cook not being included in the muster. The lieutenant im-

> It was an outrage to make his blood that he was helpless. There was force up in whatever he wished to do. The men looked appealingly at the captain, but he turned away in sorrow and de-For the last ten minutes Mary Bideord had been watching the sky and

"By gosh, but it's an oxeve squall the British man-of-war and had been seemingly oblivious of what was going You wasn't born until after 12 o'clock, on beside her. She now turned to the captain and quietly said: "Jest sort of carelessly squint into the southeast and tell me what you or I'm no sailor!" whispered Abner ten minits, we can save them. You go and talk to the mate and post him up. and I'll have a few words with the ofcare to keep him interested by allowing him to do most of the talking. She was seeking to gain nine or ten minutes, and she succeeded. Then three pressed men appeared on deck with their bags, the frigate fired a gun, and the squall came roaring down like an It was a miracle that the brig was not dismasted at once. She went over to leeward until her yardarms dipped and only the loss of a portion of her were shouts of terror and despair from herself out of the foam and went fly

When the brig had been made snug Captain Bideford looked about him Mary was just freeing herself from the however. The three marines had dis the spare spars in an unconscious con war. While the fury of the squal

Dolphin below the horizon. "Waal, Abner," sald Mary when things had been straightened out and the unconscious officer had been removed to the cabin for treatment. "mebbe you'll believe in Providence after this."

Early Prejudice Against Potatoes. The way of the potato was said t fields about Aberlady. By the close o the century it was a general article of Ramsay says that George Henderson went about 1750 for a bag of potatoe to Kilsyth, where the Irish method o field culture had lately been tried, and in kale yards. The old folks, however did not take kindly to the new food Old George Bachop, one of the Ochter "Tatties! Tatties! I never supped or Gie them to the herd and get me daylight. sowens." It is significant that Burns. side the brig. The lieutenant in charge who sang the praises of kale and por ame over the rail, followed by three ridge and haggis, should have nothing SHAFTS, PULLEYS, &c. marines with loaded muskets. He had to say of the potato. - Blackwood's

Pantomime Performances. Most pantomine characters were originally borrowed from the Italians. The first real English pantomime was swered Captain Bideford, who had all produced at a theater in Lincoln's Inn I'm getting wages only."-Cincinnati his coolness now that the crisis was at | Fields in 1720. It was called "Harle | Commercial Tribune. quin Executed," and its subtitle was 'A New Italian Comic Scene Between a Scaramouche, a Harlequin, a Country Farmer, His Wife and Others." The performance was very successful About the middle of the eighteenth century the character of pantomime performances was completely altered chiefly because of the genius of the famous Grimaldi, who made the clown the first figure in the pantomime. Grimaldl first appeared at Sadler's Wells the close of his career he took a bene fit at Drary Lane theater, which real ized nearly £600. He also received £100 from the Drury Lane fund. This was in June, 1828. He died in 1837 and was to a family that used-every day 20,000 buried in the churchyard of St. James' chapel, Pentonville Hill.

opens and Cleanses the Nasal Passsage

His Time Was Not Up. A man of a mercenary spirit had DUNAWAY ON several sons, one of whom was on the eve of his twenty-first birthday. The narian, keeping his boys well under parental charge, allowing them few liber-By JAMES EDMUND DUNNING ties and making them work hard.

It was with a feeling of considerable satisfaction that the young man rose on the morning of his birthday and began to collect his personal belongings preparatory to starting out in the world.

The farmer, seeing his son packing his trunk, which he rightly judged to be evidence of the early loss of a good farm hand, stopped at the door of the young man's room and asked what he

The boy very promptly reminded his year and declared his intention of strik- him." ing out in the world on his own ac-"Not much you won't," shouted the old man, "at least not for awhile yet!

day's work down in the potato patch." Fate's Ironies. Fate at times works some strange to using on ordinary jobs.

Mr. McHugh, an Irish member of parllament, some years ago brought forhim in proof form while he was undergoing his sentence and revised in Kil-

Two convicts were executed at the while serving a sentence for larceny | road."

two years before. A few years ago a story came from a off," taunted Hennessy. "The return town in Staffordshire, England, of a check on your pass don't seem to be in man who took his dog to the river to sight. Long lay off, eh, Tympan!" drown it in order to save the expense of a license, but slipped and was his eyes. drowned himself, while the dog returned home.

Possible Origin of a Phrase, There is an amusing story by Athe naeus which suggests the possible origin of the phrase, "He does not know the G. P. A. this mornin' about your enough to come in out of the wet." According to the entertaining grammarian referred to, a town in Greece under stress of evil circumstances borrowed money from a rich man, who ook as security for the loan a mortgage on the handsome portico which surrounded the market place. He was not an ungenerous creditor, for when It rained he caused the town criers to nnounce that the citizens had permis sion to take refuge under the colon he extraordinary circumstances that they spread abroad the report that the people were so stupid that they had to be told when to come in out of the wet.

The Kangaroo's Kick.

When a big "old man" kangaroo stiff ens his tall and converts it into a sort of revolving pivot bearing the whole weight of his body, leaving his tremen dously powerful legs free for attack and defense, everybody who does not want to be ripped up or thrown in a heap for a considerable distance wil give the marsupial a wide berth. Only kangaroo in his native Australian bush with his back to a tree, scattering dogs, bleeding and torn, right and left, can form any adequate idea of the prodigious strength the animal is capable of exerting when he finds himself in a tight corner. Kangaroos are now getting scarce in the southern parts of Australia, but they are still pretty nu- it wouldn't surprise me if she got Oh, Hennessy, look up the line!" merous in the thinly populated north,

The Harvest Moon. It so happens that the position of the moon is such that the full moon pre of London rises only nine or ten minmoon" from a notion that it is a provision of all wise Providence calculated to enable the husbandman to take care of his grain at night if there is so much them a' my days and winns the nicht of it that it cannot be handled during sought the dispatcher in the dingy sta-

Renamed It. "Yes," remarked the thin chap, "he told me to name my own salary." "Well," replied the fat one, "that was very liberal of him, I should think." "It was so," retorted the thin one sadly, "but he didn't seem to take to the name. He changed it, and now

The Father's Idea. Daughter-Papa, mamma says birthday gifts are luxuries, but I say they are necessities. Now, what do you say they are? Father-I? Oh, I say they are nul-

The Charge. Judge-Officer, what is this prisoner charged with? Officer - Electricity, your honor. caught him stealing trolley wire.-Phuadelphia Telegraph.

sances.

A Town Under One Roof. What would the ordinary woman say napkins, 12,000 towels, 3,800 sheets, 20,000 plates and 18,000 knives and forks? This is what is required by one of the large hotels in New York, at which a man cannot live for much less than $8 a day. The hotel will accommodate 3,000 people, besides 1,500 servants

Too Much Ambition. "I can't understand why you discharged my boy. You advertised for a boy with ambition, and he"-"That's just it, madam-that's just it. He wasn't in the place two days before he had his feet on my desk and was smoking my cigars."-Baltimore o' the head o' that section and there to wait on them .- Youth's Companion.

Allays Inflammation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists orby mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail. It takes 3,600,000 grains of oats to Bitters was thinning of Hennessy

Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure

The G. P. A. put his head into the general superintendent's doorway and "Old Tympan's out there again, I

"No use," replied the general superntendent. "His name came in two hours ago. I told him to report here father of the day of the month and the next time he got drunk. This finishes

Five minutes later old Tympan, after forty years of service for the A. and cause he was drunk at the Hancock that No. 8 was coming up Long Misery street switch the day the directors so you can just take off them good went up the line. Palmer had given clothes and fix to give me another half teeth of the worst runaway the A. and him a pass home, eighty miles up the road, and then fired him with ten of the words Palmer wasn't accustomed fumbled the pass on the platform, and yet Oldtown had seen nothing of the Train No. 8 pulled in while Tympan he climbed in and found a double seat ward a bill for the amendment of the in the smoker. He knew only that he law relating to contempt of court in Ire- was out of a job, with a full pint in land and was soon afterward sentenced his coat and Palmer's transportation to three months' imprisonment for that to take him up home, where he could offense. Mr. McHugh's bill was sent to camp down for the winter with the boys. He had threatened that many and grinned when the conductor cursed times. They deserved it for letting him work for a living.

"Taking vacation, Tympan?" asked Ichigaya prison in Japan, and one of Hennessy of No. 8 when he came gument while waiting, and Mary took them as he ascended the guillotine re- through for tickets. Tympan admitted marked that he had built it himself he was off for a bit of time up the of dismal detail in the familiar view "Guess you ain't coming back right > Tympan sat up, pulling his hat over "Dick Hennessy," he said, "you go slow on yer kiddin' 'r I'll roast you one o' these days f'r bein' so smart. They've fired me, you c'n bet-yes, they have; fired me good, but I'm next to Palmer > yet. An' I heard what Palmer told runnin' over orders twice last week. I know somethin', an' don't you kid me Train No. 8's conductor ignored the in the G. P. A.'s office, shouldno more!" challenge, partly because he dared do no more. He knew the whole operaterybody in sight because old Tympan, back up." Could be afford to ignore gave us a comic patter. Nobody cared invariably drunk and disorderly, held the old fellow? Though it hurt him to who his neighbor chanced to be. It was his job while better and younger and do it, he said: sober men were overhauled in Palmer's office for nothing more than leaving master tongue lashing those days from others concerning the general superin- hadn't relished what he had heard gotendent's honest intention of keeping ing through the day coaches. He leaned Hennessy tried to conciliate Tympan on his next trip through, but the old pan's idiotic laugh as he boasted of man lay with his hat over his face, having called back the biggest train work, and Hennessy felt better than and yer backed up, didn' yer? I tel' lay off that Saturday and there was an all night game in the "club" at home. At Inchburg Hennessy got his usual | blind crossing. orders, everything all straight, and left dismissal had really come Hennessy

on time. The rear brakeman found him | worth!" he shouted, "Runaway freigh just afterward and said: "Hear about the wild freight went train coming down the grade-be her up ahead of us? She's a big one, and in less than a minute. Oldtown wired stuck on the Long Misery and held us at Lyshon." Hennessy knew his man was right. three miles away. thirteen mile grade known for good patcher struck him with his fist be eral and Confederate armies, and dur-Lyshon station is at the foot of a reasons as "the Long Misery." If a tween the shoulders, crying: "Quick ing a lull in hostilities the pickets of eral successive nights in the latitude freight got hung there ahead of No. 8, man! Run her back into the siding an both cultivated one another's acquaintit meant everything balled up, for the utes later each succeeding evening. A, and B, is a single line, and the di-This phenomenon is called the "harvest rectors won't stand for a siding be- to complain that they were houribly tween Lyshon and Oldtown, the sta- shaken up that afternoon near Lyshon tion at the crest of the Long Misery. Hennessy took the platform at Lyshon before No. S's brakes held her and

"Wild freight?" echoed the telegra- the switch his head went dizzy with train? Yes, big train, but she's got a threatening thirty-three banged past the commanding general of the Federal good rail, and I don't believe she'll Hennessy gave not one look after, but army." The Confederate pickets stood Hennessy went out and looked in the a uniformed scarcerow until they gath- then saluted Grant as he rode away. hold you a minute." book by the station door. He found ered him up. where the wild freight had reported and saw with satisfaction that she was and sure to do his best to get that ther as he trimmed the midnight lamp. world to do, not a club to attend. I'm

Hennessy came along. thirty seconds, but Hennessy risked a Ain't that terrible to contemplate?" triffing delay and went back to the operator: "Can't you ask Oldtown, just for a chance, if that freight's showed up yet?" he asked. Wild freight 543 started over the Long Misery in good order that Saturday and made excellent time for eight miles or more. Then she was stopped by a shaky injector in the mogul. Bitters left his caboose and ran up ahead in time to see his redheaded engineer grab up the wrenches and start from "Go ahead lively as you can, Mike," he shouted. Mike gave the mogul sand and steam. She strained for a moment while her drivers raced and then shot ahead so hard that Mike bounced out of his seat, The train had broken apart seven cars down, leaving thirty-three detached

I .ore the hogh, thurt gather nerself to back up and eatch the breakaway

the fugitive section was slowly moving his seat.

off, very slowly, down the head end of the Long Misery. "Back up, Irish! Back up and catch em!" screeched Bitters. "You can't do it!" yelled a breathless rakeman who came up from the rear, because the gear's just completely out wouldn't be nothin' to make a couplin' to if you cannot 'end which it ain't likely you'll do an way.

fainted over the lever and hung like at attention for several moments and

His Great Opportunity.

"Ah, me!" si bed the nervous auheavy train out of the way long before "I've 'just been reading an article going to clean house and have a good which says the sun's light will be ex- time."-Pittsburg Dispatch. Lyshon was on the card for only tinguished in a million years from now. "It certainly is," replied the wife. "But you won't take my advice."

"What do you mean?"

time to lay by, with a view to taking stock in the gas companies."-Atlanta Constitution. A Sailor's Compliment. Through all the years they were to gether Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremon

"About saving money. Now is the lived for her husband, as before he marriage she had lived for her father. Her brilliant mind, her heart and he hands were constantly busy in her hus band's service, and a gallant sailor's compliment shows that her devotion was widely recognized. During the civil war, when Admira Porter had command of the Federa fleet on the Mississippl, his flagship named the little tender of the flagship Jessie Benton Fremont, and he wrote to Mrs. Fremont his explanation: "You have always sailed close t your husband and your father."

was the steamer Benton, named after

Mrs. Fremont's father, - The admira

Uncle Reuben says, "Sllence may not allus be wisdom, but if yo' don't say nuffin' yo' can't be called a fale fur it." -Detroit Free Press. The Difference.

"So that distinguished looking lady to your wife, eh?" "No. I'm that distinguished looking

MRS. L. S. ADAMS. Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Thedford's Black-Draught should be used.

For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, The Ladies' Advisory Depart-ment, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

was old Tympan standing in the mid dle of the track and waving crossed The Paris Cafe. The Paris restaurant reflects the conervative views of the Frenchman. The for him," said the rear brakeman, Parisian loves to sit on cushioned Hennessy spoke eloquently, looking benches along the wall and as like as him. "I'll not go back for him," he not enter into talk with his neighbor. at his watch. The time frightened Again, the Parisian is a true democrat. Whatever his rank, he is willing to join There was that in the rear brakeman's eyes which stopped Hennessy, in the fun going forward. I remember Suppose he should leave Tympan at one night in the Cafe de Paris seeing a Lyshon over Sunday, with no trains Hungarian prince with a rent roll of either way, and suppose the old man's scores of thousands stalk up to a band pull with R. H. P. were still working, of his countrymen and take the first and suppose the young husband of her violin from the hands of the leader. who was Nell Tympan, he who worked The next minute a score of well known And there was old Tympan himself | count sang a love song; a ballet dancer standing in the middle of the track from the opera obliged us with a remarkable fandango; a sugar refiner and signaling, "Back up, back up,

Imagine a duke and an earl and a rich merchant amusing the supper The rear brakeman pulled the cord, crowd at the Carlton or the Savoy! Decidedly they do these things better in France.—Paris Letter in London Ex-

> New Stars. It is suggested by Louis Rabourdin, a sion of the whole crust, reducing the globe again to a molten state, and then the gradual extinction of its light owing to cooling. As cooling would first take place locally, we should have a variable star, the darkened portions being periodically brought into view, by the rotation of the globe.-Success. It was a cloud of sand and dust a A Compliment to the Enemy. the first curve in the Long Misery Chattanooga creek was the dividing line between the outposts of the Fedanother. One day when the captain of The passengers knew only chough the Union guard saw General Grant, with his staff, approaching he said to his men, "Turn out the guard for the ates on the other side of the creek, not order, and their captain, conceiving the idea of paying a compliment to the enpher. "Yes, went up an hour ago. Big the whirl of the freight. When the emy, shouted, "Turn out the guard for > Relaxation. "I feel happy today," said the club woman. "I haven't a thing in the

Some Reasons Why You Should Insist on Having EUREKA HARNESS OIL Renders hard leather soft. Especially prepared. Keeps out water.

A heavy bodied oil.

HARNESS An excellent preservative. Reduces cost of your harness. Never burns the leather; its Efficiency is increased. Secures best service.

Stitches kept from breaking.

Standard Oil Company